JOINT DETERMINATION 03-00

TO: SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: MAP Item 03-00 -- Per Diem for Dual Status Military Technicians While on Active Duty
Without Pay Outside the United States

1. SYNOPSIS: This change amends the JFTR to provide that dual status military technicians may be authorized per diem while on leave from employment as civilian technicians and serving on active duty without pay outside the United States
2. The Committee Chair has approved the attached changes to the Joint Federal Travel Regulations, Vol. 1, (JFTR), made in MAP Item 03-00, for publication. These changes are scheduled to appear in JFTR change number 167, dated 1 November 2000. This determination is an advance notice of the changes to the JFTR. You are requested to disseminate this determination to the appropriate offices within your Service. This determination is effective 10 February 1996.

JFTR, par. U7150-B revised by redesignating current subpar. 2 as subpar. 3, amending the redesignated subpar. 3 and inserting a new subpar. 2

B. Active Duty Without Pay

1. Standby Reserve. There is no entitlement to travel and transportation allowances for members of the Standby Reserve of the Armed Forces who voluntarily perform active duty training without pay.

(NOTE: Subpar. 2 is effective as of 10 February 1996)

2. Technicians (Dual Status). Per diem may be authorized by the Secretarial Process for dual status military technicians (as described in 10 USC § 10216) while on leave from technical employment and performing active duty without pay (as authorized by 5 USC § 6323(d)) outside the United States.

3. Others. Except as provided in subpar. 2, other reserve component members who perform duty described in subpar. A without pay may be entitled to occasional meals, quarters, or the applicable automobile or motorcycle mileage rate, for travel to and from their duty stations, including travel required in connection with qualifying physical examinations or conditions precedent to the duty involved. They are not entitled to per diem and AEA at the duty station (44 Comp. Gen. 615 (1965); 46 id. 319 (1966)).
